This letter is prepared at the request of our insured to assist with criminal proceedings. Therefore, this letter is not to be used in any manner in any civil proceedings.

Payment(s) we have made are not to be construed as an admission of liability or fault on behalf of our insured. There are many factors that are considered in the payment of a claim, including the potential cost of defense in a civil action. Our only purpose in preparing this letter is to confirm our contractual obligations to our insured.
